Listening A [Track 07]

Conversation 1

Lisa: What kind of TV shows do you like, Rick?

Rick: I like reality shows, Lisa. My favorite is one about famous people on an island. It's fantastic!

Lisa: Oh, I know that one – I think it's terrible! I prefer to watch soap operas. They're interesting, but they're not like real life.

Rick: Really? I think soap operas are boring. They're just the same story again and again.

Conversation 2

Sharon: Mark, do you want to watch this game show?

Mark: Not really. Game shows are boring. Let's watch this action movie. It's pretty exciting.

Sharon: But this game show is great! I watched it last week. People win really good prizes.

Mark: Sorry, Sharon. I prefer to watch the movie.

Conversation 3

Danny: What are you watching, Cindy?

Cindy: A documentary about whales.

Danny: Hmm. . . . Can we watch Channel 6? There's a good talk show on right now.

Cindy: You know, I don't like watching talk shows. They're always the same.

Danny: I know, but Al Pacino is on today. He's my favorite actor.

Cindy: Well, go ahead then . . . but after that, let's watch the documentary, OK?

Danny: OK . . . thanks.

Conversation 4

Scott: Hey, Mary.

Mary: Hi, Scott!

Scott: What are you doing tonight?

Mary: Oh, nothing much. Just watching TV, I guess. How about you?

Scott: No plans, really. Would you like to go out for a pizza?

Mary: Hmm, OK. . . . No, wait a minute! There's a movie on TV that I want to see at eight. It's a drama about a family in Mexico. Do you want to come to my house? We can watch it together.

Scott: OK, I'll buy the pizza and bring it to your house. See you later.
