Listening A [Track 08]

Sheila: Look at that beautiful old picture over there, Larry. I'd love to buy it.
It would look great over the sofa in our living room.

Larry: It's very pretty, Sheila, but you know we don't have enough space for it.
Look at it. It's really big!

Sheila: I know, but it's so beautiful. Let's ask about it.
Excuse me. How much is this picture?

Vendor: Now, that's a real bargain. I can give it to you for $300.

Larry: $300? That's pretty expensive.

Sheila: Would you take $200?

Vendor: No, I'm sorry. $300 is the price.

Sheila: Sorry, I'm afraid that's too expensive for us.

Vendor: Well . . . all right. I could let you have it for . . . $250.

Larry: No, that's too much. Come on, Sheila. Let's go.

Sheila: No, wait, Larry. Maybe I can find something less expensive.

Larry: Well, all right. But there's a baseball game on TV this afternoon, and I'd really like to be home for it.

Sheila: No problem. This won't take long.
